He Used To Be a Great Base Ball Player,

BUT IS NOW WORKING FOR THE LORD

A Few Remarks Delivered to Railway Men at Chicago—Rev. Hugh O. Pentecost Delivers a Remarkable Sermon at Chickering Hall, New York—Rev. Bridgman Scored by Minister Potter—Sermon Preached by Dr. Newton.

CHICAGO, June 1.—William A., better known as "Billy" Sunday, the ex-base ball player, spoke Sunday afternoon at the reading-rooms for the Northwestern railroad men, 117 West Kinzie street. The reading-room stands in the midst of a network of railway tracks. Its neighbors are tough barrel-house saloons and tougher resorts and the shrieks of locomotives and shrill whistles of passing boats pour in through the open windows. Sacred songs were sung and prayers were offered for all railroad men, from the president of the board of directors down to the track repairers.

Most Lives Are Failures.
Mr. Sunday's sermon was a practical talk on the contest resulting from a Christian life and the unrest accompanying the life of a non-Christian, even though wealth jingled in his pocket and fame waved round his brow like choicest laurels. Some of his sentences were: "You can step on the promise of God with both feet and be as secure as were you treading the deck of a Cauder." "When any one knocks on your heart and asks, 'Who lives here?' and the speaker, 'no conduct yourself so that you can say, 'God lives here.' Most lives are failures. A life with God in it alone is worthy the name of success. A pure life with God brings serenity, a pleasant present, and a glorious future. No other method of living is worthy the name of life. Happiness is with God, misery with sin."

RIVAL TO BOB INGERSOLL.

Strong Remarks on Religion Made by Rev. Hugh O. Pentecost.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The announcement that Hugh O. Pentecost would speak Sunday night on the subject, "A Useless God," drew an audience to Chickering hall. The people were more or less startled by such utterances as these: "The longer God lives the more useless he becomes. Once upon a time God could take nothing and make a world out of it; he can't do it now. Once upon a time his people did not have to wage warfare as they do now; all they had to do was to go to the enemy's walls and blow in rammer horns and the walls would accommodate itself fall down. They can't do that now."

Have to Work for What They Get.
Now I put it to you squarely, whether you think it fair for these modern clergymen to cause God to cease being the active and useful person he once was. Ask one of these clergymen if it is of any use praying for bread, he will say: "Not unless you work for it." When these clergymen speak of God they don't mean anybody in particular, but that mysterious something which they say "keeps things going." They call it God, because they don't know exactly what they do mean. But whatever it is, it is useless. My object is not to blame me, but to call your attention to the fact that the leading clergymen of the day are teaching you to worship a God who can do nothing for you."

"WHERE IS THE FLOCK?"

The Sermon Delivered by Rev. Dr. Daniel Potter in New York City.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Rev. Dr. Daniel C. Potter delivered his sermon in the Baptist tabernacle Sunday morning to Rev. C. D. W. Bridgman, of the Madison Avenue Baptist church, who went over to the Episcopal church last week. Dr. Potter's text was from Jeremiah xlii, 28: "Where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?" The preacher followed his text with this improved answer which he put in Dr. Bridgman's mouth: "I left it, Lord, and went where I could gratify my ritualistic tendencies and wear pretty gowns."

To Oath the Public Eye.
He said his sermon was to show his own people that there was liberty of discussion in the Baptist church and hence no need of getting out of it because of varying opinions. He said: "Nearly all modern heretics have sinned more in the manner and mode of their statements than in doctrine. This they do for temporary effect, to catch the public eye. It is a professional trick to give the appearance of honesty to one's statement. As a matter of fact, in nearly every instance such persons as these could easily secure by sacrificing simply their notoriety." The remainder of his sermon was devoted to a sound scolding of Dr. Bridgman.

DR. NEWTON'S SERMON.

A Vigorous Outset Upon an Orthodox Theory.

NEW YORK, June 1.—All Soul's Protestant Episcopal church was crowded to its doors at Sunday morning's service. Dr. B. Heber Newton's sermon was a vigorous onslaught upon the orthodox theory that creeds must be interpreted according to their literal phraseology. Among other things Dr. Newton said: "A creed is to be read as understanding its true authority. No creed rests upon the authority of Christ himself. Creeds do rest upon the authority of the councils which issued them. But this is not all that might be desired."

The Truth of the Creed.
A universal council is not a synonym for a universal creed. Creeds are not transcripts of some heavenly manuscript set up from copy brought down by little angels. The truth of the creed rests not on the authority of the body setting it forth, but on its own intrinsic truthfulness, its interpretation of the Christian consciousness. Its authority will last so long, and only so long, as it continues thus to express the Christian consciousness and to interpret satisfactorily the problems of nature and man in the light of the spirit of Jesus Christ."

A Young Lady's Port.

PITTSBURG, June 1.—Pretty Mollie Hanlon attended a Decoration Day picnic at McKee's Rocks and missed the 10 o'clock train for Pittsburg. Two men volunteered to row her across the Ohio to enable her to catch a Fort Wayne train. In the middle of the river they decided to take the girl to Brunot's island, a lonely, isolated place. They refused to land her, and the frightened girl leaped into the river. The ruffians dragged her back and were proceeding to the island when intercepted by the ferryman, who heard Mollie's screams, and took the unconscious girl from the men, who were later arrested and are now in jail.

Called the Preacher a Liar.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 1.—During the progress of the San Jose meeting at the Tabernacle Sunday, Rev. Dr. Stuart was preaching to 10,000 people. He said he was going to talk plainly, regardless of slurs thrown at him by a scurrilous afternoon sheet edited by a man of questionable character. E. H. Bailey, brother of W. H. Bailey, editor of the Herald, jumped to his feet and in a loud voice said: "You refer to my brother and what you say is a lie." A wild uproar followed this remark, and it was with difficulty that the clergyman could restrain the vast assembly.

A Pastor of Resources.

ANSONIA, Conn., June 1.—Rev. Pitblado is just being installed as pastor of the Methodist church and has inaugurated the custom of having female ushers, which has the effect of bringing out a large attendance of young men. The minister has succeeded in getting a clock for the church by a novel scheme. For several Sundays he has preached extraordinarily long sermons, and when asked by some of the restless congregation why he talked so long he apologized and said that where he was stationed before he had a clock to look at occasionally.

Drowned While Forging a Stream.

PLATTSBURG, Mo., June 1.—Sunday morning A. E. Meninger, one of the leading citizens of this county, with his wife and daughter drove out from the city to spend the day with friends in the country. Heavy rains fell during the day. In the evening horse and carriage were found in the creek near near town, but a vigorous search of several hours failed to show any evidence of any of the parties and it is said that all three are drowned, as the water is twenty feet and a strong current is running. A large searching party is hunting for the bodies, but so far without success.

Narrow Escape from Cremation.

NAEVILLE, Tenn., June 1.—Fire broke out in the Buckingham theatre, on College street, near Public square, this city, at midnight last night. A number of actresses who were sleeping in the building had narrow escapes. Three of them and a child were rescued from the coils of the fourth story by firemen. Only one person was injured—a negro, who jumped from the third story and broke his leg.

Located in Seattle.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—Page McPherson, the absconding St. Louis broker who represented McCormick & Co., of Chicago, in St. Louis, has been located in Seattle. A St. Louis man ran against him two days ago and promptly notified him family here. A warrant has been issued against McPherson by the St. Louis mining exchange, of which he was treasurer, but it is probably that the prosecution will not be pushed.

Banished to Siberia.

BERLIN, June 1.—The Kreuz Zeitung publishes an account of a Protestant pastor in Lithuania named Schmidt who has been sentenced to banishment to Siberia. His offense is alleged to have been the proselytizing of a member of the orthodox Greek church. The same paper also mentions the case of Pastor Lorchelmann in Rastonia who was condemned to fourteen months' imprisonment for a similar offense.

Has Not Much Hope.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, June 1.—James E. Boyd, the unqualified governor-elect of Nebraska, who is here attending his father's funeral, stated to old friends that there was little hope of a decision of the supreme court relieving him of his disability and putting him in the gubernatorial chair by reversing the decision of the Nebraska supreme court.

Fell Into Boiling Water.

TRIFTS, O., June 1.—Will Baumgardner, aged 38, an employee of the American Railway was day down deep in a pile of straw Saturday night preparatory to going to work at midnight. When awakened he stumbled into a vat of boiling water and was terribly scalded from the neck downward, the flesh falling from the bones in shreds. He will die.

Put a Bullet Into Her Nephew.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 1.—While Mrs. Ellen Clancy, a reputable woman, was being ejected from the boarding house of Mrs. Mary O'Hara by her nephew, James Tingle, she shot him at close range. The ball, however, being but a .22-caliber, inflicted a serious wound above the heart which will probably not prove fatal. Mrs. Clancy was arrested.

The Latest Encyclical.

LONDON, June 1.—The official English translation of the pope's encyclical on social questions has been issued by Cardinal Manning. The Times says of the document: "It is doubtful whether the questions are handled with success. Yet it abounds in remarks that deserve attention, and it breathes throughout a spirit of Christian charity."

Blaine Goes to Her Harbor.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Secretary Blaine left for Bar Harbor by the 10 o'clock train Monday morning, where his cottage has been made ready for him. Mrs. Blaine and Mrs. Damrosch accompanied him. The Damrosch residence has been closed for the summer.

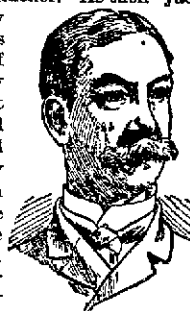

Jackson Challenges Corbett.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Peter Jackson has issued a challenge to Jim Corbett offering to fight him in the California club, or any fair club, New Orleans barred, for a purse of $10,000. Jackson will put up a forfeit as a guarantee of his good faith.

DEATH OF PRENTICE MULFORD.

The Noted Correspondent Dies While Yachting in Sheepshead Bay.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Prentice Mulford, author, editor, correspondent, and yachtsman, died Saturday a party of yachtsmen in Sheepshead bay saw a small boat riding at anchor. As their yacht swooped by they saw lying motionless upon the bottom of the boat a stoutly built man of about 50. They hailed him, but received no response. They saw pointed upon the stern of the boat the name White Cross. An examination showed that the occupants of the boat were Prentice Mulford and that he was dead.

His Best Known Works.

Death undoubtedly resulted from heart disease. He was best known as an author by his "Swamp Angel" and "Prentice Mulford's Story." "Prentice Mulford's Story" is the history of his life. Born among the waters of Sag Harbor in 1838, he spent some years at sea, his comrades and shipmates being his old schoolfellows. He then went to San Francisco, and was identified with the San Francisco newspapers and politics. Fifteen years ago he came to New York and corresponded for several western journals.

Those New Circuit Judges.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 1.—President Harrison has finally determined not to appoint the nine new circuit court judges until next December. He says no member has yet been selected. Political belief, it is understood, will not be the dominant requisite for appointment to these positions. The president to select men for these places of the very highest legal ability, and with the view of obtaining such talent the legal work of candidates will be carefully scrutinized, and wherever it is possible their briefs and printed arguments before their respective supreme courts will be secured and subjected to examination.

Another Kind of "Jack."

NEW YORK, June 1.—The peculiar condition, whether atmospheric or alcoholic, which has caused several individuals who have come to be known as "Jack the Window Smasher," has been at work in Brooklyn. Plate glass was his specialty. He has broken dozens of plate glass windows, and it is estimated that he has done $3,000 worth of damage in two months. The Brooklyn police captured him Sunday morning. He was found to be William Chevalier, the son of a well-known and wealthy pilot living at 367 North Sixth Street, Brooklyn.

Tragedy at Washington City.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 1.—At an early hour Sunday morning Adolph Dohenna, better known as George Leont, shot and seriously wounded Charles C. Frost and slightly wounded his wife, whom he found coming from a room occupied by Frost. As the woman rushed from the room Leont fired at her, wounding the left arm, and then entering the chamber he cut and slashed her with the revolver into Frost's body. The husband was arrested, and while at the station house expressed regret that he had not killed both his victims.

Fatal Runaway Accident.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 1.—A Springfield, Mo., special to The Republic says: Mrs. A. E. Rose, of this city, was thrown from a buggy and instantly killed. She and Mrs. J. G. Newell and little boy were returning from the funeral of Mrs. J. S. Birmingham, when the pony they were driving ran away and threw them. Mrs. Rose's neck was broken by the fall. The other two escaped with slight bruises.

They Had Been Dead a Week.

CHARLESTON, O., June 1.—A special from North Amherst, O., says: Misses Harriet and Emily Bryant, maiden ladies, were found dead in bed by their brother, George, of Elvira. The coroner came to the conclusion that death was caused by gas escaping from the coal stove on Sunday night one week ago. Their money, bank book and everything about the house were intact.

Eighty Thousand Acres for Jews.

ASHVILLE, N. C., June 1.—One of the largest real estate deals made in North Carolina recently has just been closed. Rabbi Wessler, an agent of a Russian immigration society, has purchased 80,000 acres of land in Caldwell county, eighty miles east of Asheville. To this property the society proposes to bring at least 1,000 families of Jews who have been driven from Russia by the government.

Typical Southern Item.

FARMERVILLE, La., June 1.—Saturday night three farmers, named Jim Auld, Jim McGough, and John Dawson, went to St. Louis for a party. A negro was living there. Mrs. Joyner came to the rescue with a shotgun and opened fire on the trio. Mr. McGough was instantly killed and Auld riddled with buckshot. More trouble is anticipated and the sheriff has left for the scene.

Got a Kiste Unstuck.

PITTSBURG, June 1.—All the passenger conductors and brakemen of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railway have received an advance of 40 cents a day. This was unsolicited by the men, and would be received with great enthusiasm were it not for the fact that with the advance comes additional work that more than makes up for it. The men will object.

Voted Against Dr. Brooks.

THOMASTON, Me., June 1.—The standing committee of Maine met at Portland Saturday and voted unanimously against the confirmation of the Rev. Phillips Brooks as bishop of Massachusetts. The principal reason assigned was that he is not sound in his theology.

Fell Between the Cars.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—Henry Meyer, a 15-year-old boy, lying at 347 Montgomery street, while climbing from a grip car to a trailer on the Citizens' railway, fell between the cars and was run over and instantly killed.

The First Canadian Fear.

MONTREAL, June 1.—Sir George Stephen has been created a peer by her majesty. This is the first instance of a peerage bestowed on a Canadian.

THE CRIMINAL RECORD

Bad Deeds Committed by Unrighteous People.

LOUISIANA NEGRO'S AWFUL FATE.

His Executioners Bide Their Time and "Get There" at Last—A Phenomenon of Vice Developed in a 16-Year-Old Girl—Confessed Double Wife-Murder—Two Men Who Failed as Vigilantes Because Joyner Was on Hand with a Gun—Identification That Did Not Identify.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1.—The fact of the lynching of a negro—Tump Hampton—in Claiborne parish was reported some time ago, but not until Saturday were the exact facts received by Governor Nicholls. The information from the penitentiary officials is that last year Hampton, who was a resident of Claiborne parish, was suspected by his white neighbors of complicity in a hog stealing case, and they went in a body one night to his house for the purpose of correcting or lynching him. He warned them off from his house, and on their persisting in the attack he shot and killed one of the members of the party.

The Lynching of Tump Hampton.

This disconcerted the crowd for the night, but the next day Hampton was arrested for the killing. An attempt was made to enter the jail and lynch him, but the plans of the mob were thwarted by the prompt action of the sheriff. Hampton got a change of venue and stood trial for the killing, and was immediately rearrested for hog-stealing, and fearing that he would be lynched if he remained in jail pending trial he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year, and the sheriff delivered him at the penitentiary at once and the lynchers were again prevented from doing any violence.

The crowd was determined to avenge the killing of their friend, and waited patiently until Hampton had served out his sentence, when they had him arrested on an affidavit sworn out before a justice of the peace on the day of his discharge. Upon his arrival in Claiborne he was met by an armed mob who took him from the constable and burned him to death. The next day nothing could be found of Hampton except a heap of ashes and a pair of burnt hand-cuffs.

PRETTY, BUT VERY WICKED.

A 16-Year-Old Iowa Girl Who Seems To Be a Terror.

CARROLL, Ia., June 1.—Many crimes are charged to a pretty 16-year-old girl who is locked up in the county jail. She calls herself Katie Faulkner, but says she is concealing her real name in order to shield relatives from disgrace. She says she was left an orphan when only 1 year old, and went to live with an uncle. Her great passion was for money, and seeing a circular advertising counterfeit money, she answered it, and placed quite an order.

Robbed an Uncle of Sixty Dollars.

When it came to be sent by express with $55 charges, and not having the money to take it out of the office she ran away and went to another uncle, where she stole $60. After securing the money she went to Council Bluffs and put up at the best hotel in the city. In a short time she left without paying her board bill, and on arriving at Panama she robbed a store, secured a suit of men's clothes, and in this disguise started for Des Moines, where she was arrested, but was released on condition that she would reform.

A Case of Total depravity.

She says that she tried to keep from stealing, but she could not resist the temptation. She says she failed to secure the money and jewelry from a married couple whose house she entered one night, because they would not let her still, and that if she had a revolver they would have driven her out. She says she was on being placed in jail she was searched, and a small bottle of laudanum was found sewed in her dress. When asked what she was going to do with it she said she was going to commit suicide.

CONFESSION TO TWO MURDERS.

An Ohio Man Says He Made Away with Two Wives.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 1.—A man giving the name or Sewald called on Justice of the Peace W. A. Henry Friday. Eleven years ago, he said, he lived in Ohio with his wife and four children. His wife took to drink, and he left her. He went to Anoka, Minn. His wife followed. Sewald became desperate, and determined to put an end to her. He purchased some arsenic and put it in a bottle containing whisky, which his wife had procured. She drank some of the whisky and died shortly after. Her death attracted but little attention, and no suspicion attached to him.

Soon Tired of Wife No. 2.

He next moved to Wayne, Neb. Here he married again. His second matrimonial venture was worse than the first. He determined to get rid of wife No. 2, and accordingly smothered her with the bed clothes. Considerable suspicion attached to the second murderous feat of Sewald. The coroner of Wayne investigated, but failed to procure evidence strong enough to fasten the guilt on Sewald. He then came to California and settled near Suttersville, where he lived up to the present time. He said he was glad that he had at last unburdened himself, and wanted to be locked up for his crimes.

Kicked His Babe to Death.

NEW YORK, June 1.—On Saturday night Daniel McCarthy went to his home drunk. His wife asked him for his wages, and a quarrel ensued. The woman had her 6-week-old babe in her arms at the time. Suddenly McCarthy fell on the floor, and then aimed a vicious kick at the protesting woman. The little weak child received the full force of the brute's foot in the groin, which so injured it that it will die. The woman was also dragged around the room and frightfully beaten, after which McCarthy left the house.

Joyner Appeared on the Scene.

FARMERVILLE, La., June 1.—S. L. Joyner Saturday shot and killed Jim McGough and fatally wounded Jim Auld. The victims had gone to Joyner's place with the intention of whipping a negro there, but Joyner appeared on the scene with a shotgun, and riddled them with bird shot with the above result. The sheriff has gone to arrest Joyner.

Shot and Killed a Sotted Dove.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—Saturday evening William S. Lay, a waiter in the Famous restaurant, shot and almost instantly killed Kitten Bauman, aged 20 years, an inmate of the penitentiary.

mate of a disreputable house at No. 10 Pine street. Lay claims that he was endeavoring to persuade the girl to leave the house, when she refused, and he fired the fatal shot.

THE IDENTIFICATION POSITIVE.

But the Accused One Could Not Possibly Have Been the Man.

ERIE, Pa., June 1.—One of the most remarkable cases of mistaken identity on record came to light here Saturday in connection with the Tobin murder at Franklin, Pa., on the night of March 21, 1891. Daniel O'Brien, a prisoner in the Erie jail, was suspected of complicity in the crime, and two witnesses positively identified him as a tramp who had been seen in Franklin on the day of the murder. They unmistakably pointed out O'Brien from among eleven prisoners who had been ranged in a row in the jail corridor.

A Perfect Alibi, Notwithstanding.

The police of Oil City likewise identified the prisoner's photograph as that of a man who sought lodging in the lock-up the night before the murder. The fact had been already established that O'Brien was a crook from Syracuse, and a telegram was received Saturday night from the chief of police of that city saying that O'Brien was in the penitentiary from March 13, 1891, to March 23, proving an alibi.

THE RECORD OF SPORTS.

Situation in the Base Ball Contest—The Pullman "Hyke" Race.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Ausou's colts had their wings clipped a little last week. The New York experts did the clipping. Consequently the percentage was taken down a few pegs, although the lead is still very satisfactory to the Windy City crank—112 points. Pittsburg still holds second place, but Cleveland dropped to fourth, while Boston is uncomfortably close—for Snooky city people—to the Pittsburg record, only two points intervening. New York has climbed to fifth, and Philadelphia gone down to sixth, while Cincinnati has a grip on last place, which she seems to be proud of.

INTERESTING BICYCLE RACE.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The weather Saturday, which was so auspicious for the Memorial Day services, was a thing of joy to 100 riders of bicycles who went to try their mettle along the ten miles of road between here and Pullman. It was a lively scene as the wheels started on their journey, and a livelier one at Pullman when R. M. Barwise, of the Chicago club, rolled in the winner of the race. His time was 50 minutes and he was handicapped 10 minutes. C. C. Starr was second and R. C. Bode third—all local men. The time prize, however, was won by N. H. Van Sicken, whose time was 50:17. He rode a pneumatic tire, which was penalized. F. T. Andrea, of Milwaukee, rode an ordinary tire and made the best time in that class; time, 53:12.

Time on the Race Track.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The winning horses at the west side races Saturday were: For-eigner, 3/4 mile, 1:30:34; Maryland, 1 1/4 miles, 1:57:41; Ethel, 1 1/2 miles, 2:00:34; Rosa, 3/4 mile, 1:17:17; Jack, 3/4 mile, 1:10:30; Burch, 3/4 mile, 1:10:30.

LATONIA, Ky., June 1.—Saturday's winners at the races here were: Coriano Kinney, 1 mile 30 yards, 1:43:34; Hopeful, same distance, 1:43:34; Shipmate, 1 mile, 1:43:34; Longshot, 1 mile 70 yards, 1:47; Marion C., 1 1/4 miles, 2:08; Dore, 4 1/2 furlongs, 0:57:34.

HE OBJECTS TO GROSVENOR.

A German Editor of St. Louis Wants the Ohio Man Bounced.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—Richard Bartholdi, editor of the German newspaper Tribune, of this city, and chairman of the permanent committee appointed by the conference of German societies held at Washington City some time since, the object of which committee is "to guard such German-American interests as are identical with those of our adopted country," has written to Secretary Foster protesting against the appointment of Gen. Grosvenor as immigration commissioner, owing to the sentiments alleged to have been expressed in an interview at New York in which Grosvenor is reported to have said that Wisconsin was practically a foreign state.

Says It Is Know-Nothingism.

Bartholdi says further: "His prejudices displayed towards a states settled and made prosperous by Germans is Know-Nothingism pure and simple. While Mr. Grosvenor judges the value of an American citizen by his tongue, we claim that it should be gauged by the individual's character, thrift, intelligence, and love of liberty and law. The bulk of the Germans must be classified among the best Americans, and in the west they constitute the bone and sinew of the Republican party ever since the war, in which they fought for the preservation of the Union. I believe I voice the sentiment of a majority of German-Americans if I ask you to withdraw Gen. Grosvenor's appointment for which you have partly held responsible, since his prejudices have become publicly known."

Burned by a Gas Explosion.

CHICAGO, June 1.—W. O. Worth, president of the Chicago Bicycle company, and A. L. Jordan, the St. Louis agent of the concern, were terribly burned Saturday by an explosion which took place in the Keene block where French bicycles are manufactured. Mr. Jordan lighted a match in the finishing room, and ignited gas which had escaped from a leaking pipe. Their burns are not fatal. The resulting fire gutted the building, causing a loss of $85,000; fully insured.

Wheat Damaged by Hail.

KANSAS CITY, June 1.—A heavy hail and rain storm passed to the north and west of this city Saturday, doing great damage to the growing grain. The hail beat down the standing wheat. Thousands of dollars worth of damage has been done.

THE BISHOP'S VISIT.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Immense congregations—Father Burns celebrates High Mass—Fine music prepared for the day—The bishop's address—A large class confirmed—Eight grown persons—A powerful sermon by Father Burns at night.

All the services at St. Patrick's church yesterday were largely attended and unusually impressive. The church was crowded at every service. Even the lobby was filled to overflowing, and many stood on the steps outside. The music was unusually fine, and much of it was prepared especially for the day. The choir of the church is now better than it has ever been. It includes a number of good voices, all well trained. The members of the choir are: J. Sauerman, leader, Martin O'Hara, George Peake, Professor Nees, T. F. Muleady, Mrs. W. Moore, Misses Sallie Holland, Stella Steele, Marie McDermott, Celia Milligan, Kate Leubay, Anna Brown, Mary O'Hara, organist, Mother Bormeo, Annie Brown and Sallie Holland, and Professor Nees, and the playing of Mother Bormeo deserves especial mention.

The first mass was said at 9, when Bishop Ryan was the celebrant. Mass was celebrated at 5 by Father Mackin.

The most impressive service of the day was the solemn high mass said at 9.30. The church was crowded. Scarcely space for a person to stand was left unoccupied. The presence of the bishop for the purpose of confirming one of the largest classes in the history of the church, made the exercises more solemn. The class assembled at the convent and marched to the parochial residence. There it was headed by Bishop Ryan, Father Mackin, Father Lammer, Father Burns of Ivesdale, Father Maguire and Father Forster, and the acolytes, all in the vestments of their office. The procession entered the church by the front door. As it came in the organ and choir pealed out the grand notes of "Ecce Sacrosanctus Magnus."

Father Burns, of Ivesdale, celebrated the solemn high mass, assisted by Father Forster as deacon and Father Maguire as sub-deacon. Father Lammer was master of ceremonies. The choir sang magnificently. Father Burns read the offertory, "Lauda Sion," by Lambillotte, and for the benediction "Tantum Ergo" were sung.

At the conclusion of the mass the bishop examined the children who were to be confirmed in the catechism. He asked each child a question, and in all the large number only one or two failed to answer promptly and correctly. It was evident that the instruction of the children had been thorough and careful. The bishop during the questioning made many comments on the text that were calculated to make the words more clear and more impressive to the minds of the class. He frequently bestowed a kindly word or smile on some child more timid than the others, or more prompt and exact in answering, that won for him not only the love of the children, but the fuller admiration and respect of the larger people in the congregation. Bishop Ryan stands at the head of the clergy in the west as one of the best scholars and ablest theologians of the country. It was an interesting service and instructive to many besides those in the class, of whom there were 112, 104 children and 6 adults.

After examining each one separately, the bishop said a few words to the class as a whole, explaining the catechism, and the reason for studying it. In this connection he said they should study it to understand their religion fully, and to be able to tell what the Catholics believe, and why they believe it.

The bishop then made a short address to the class, beginning with a text from the words of David.

How much reason have you to thank God with Holy David. What an abundance of favor and grace has he not shown you? How has he not cared for and blessed you? He has spread before you a great feast of good things that will last through your life and make it better and purer. You have been to the table of the Lord to receive the bread of everlasting life. Now after long preparation you are to receive the sacrament of confirmation. In confirmation the Holy Ghost comes to you to arm you for the battle of life. You, my dear children, are about to enter upon a long and hard conflict, where you will meet many enemies—sin, wickedness, troubles of all kinds. In confirmation the Holy Ghost comes to strengthen you for this conflict. Go with you through life, and give you counsel, to give you wisdom, understanding, knowledge, fortitude and piety. Faithful to the Holy Ghost in confirmation will enable you to fight with sin, with Satan, and at the end of the fight, I have kept the faith: heaven there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but to all that endure to the end."

You will be faithful to the Holy Ghost by remembering the lessons you have learned in preparation for confirmation; remember the morning and evening prayer, be sure to come to mass on Sunday. If you are found in sin, even if it is venial sin, never go to it, do not carry, turn from it, and the Holy Ghost will help you to keep from it. The Holy Ghost does not leave one that stays in sin, or harbors sin in his heart.

Every day of your life you will be able to turn forth fruits to the Holy Ghost. All the twenty of this brightest season of the year does not begin to compare with the beauty of the fruits of a soul in which the Holy Ghost abides, and of a life which is guided by the teachings of the Holy Ghost.

These fruits are mildness, goodness, charity. Not only your father and mothers are praying for you, but up in heaven your guardian angels, your patron saints, the patron saint of this church, and our Holy Mother, are praying and interceding for you, that you may be good Christians and good Catholics, not Catholics in name merely, but in fact, walking in the letter and the spirit of the teachings of the church.

There is no telling what an amount of good one true Catholic may be known to the world on the last day, when all shall stand before God. Therefore strive to open your hearts, and receive the Holy Ghost, that it may guide you and teach you, and keep you holy in the name of God.

At the conclusion of the bishop's address, which was short, plain, and easily within the comprehension of his smallest listeners, he administered the sacrament of confirmation, pronouncing the name of each child separately and blessing it. In this way he was assisted by Father Mackin, who gave him the names of children, and by Father Lammer and Father Maguire. James Milligan acted as sponsor for the boys and Mrs. James Milligan acted as sponsor for the girls. The music of Millard's "Veni Creator," admirably rendered, accompanied the service. After the confirmation the bishop gave his benediction to the children and the congregation, and the impressive service was finished.

AT NIGHT. Vespers were sung at the church was filled again. Vespers were sung by Father Lammer, assisted by Father Maguire and Father Forster. The music was especially fine and beautiful. It was "Ecce Pans," a duet by Mrs. Moore and Miss Brown, and "Magnificat" by Peters. Father Burns preached the sermon, which was plain, practical, very forcible, sensible, and calculated to make men and women live better and more useful lives. The sermon was most highly spoken of by every one in the large audience as it left the church at the close.

The text was "The spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, and that which containeth all things bath knowledge of his voice." The words come from the Holy One which filleth all space. The text does not say the Holy Spirit is confined to any particular place, that it is here, or there, but that it fills all space. After a few words to logically demonstrate the truth of that statement, the father said he was not going to give a dogmatic sermon on the existence of the Holy Spirit, but would show that it tingles with us in our every day life, and tries to direct us to better things, in our homes, in the world, in the government, in all our undertakings.

What is meant by our homes? Merely the mansion of the rich man, the house of the poor man? It may be either. It matters not. Here we find two persons, when the home is first established, the man and the woman, both free and individual, endowed with free will that they can choose with that will between good and evil. As a child is given its parents to advise it when it is offered a choice between some pleasures so are we given some one to guide and direct us. God, our father, gives us his Holy Spirit.

In our homes we find the man, the woman. The man is the head and the woman is his counterpart. The man is the head, but because he is, he must supply a provision for the family. To do this he must have knowledge, strength and wisdom. These are gifts from God. If they were not, we would find them in the child just from its mother's womb. This gift comes with God's Holy Spirit. This Holy Spirit comes to us with our nature. It is a part of all nature, and pervades every part of our being. It enters into every motion of our body. The arm, the eye, the tongue, all move by his power and get strength from him.

Upon the correct performance of the duties God gives us in our homes depends our happiness. Do we think of this when we use his tongue to blaspheme his holy name? Do we think of this when we strike another with all the strength he has given us? Do we remember this when we use his tongue to utter our words of anger? Do we remember this when we take this, his body, into places where the very depths of hell? Do we reflect that we are trying with all our power to drag his Holy Spirit down to hell and there make it subject to the demons that there abide? No, we forget these things, but because we do forget them, we turn and help the demons of hell abuse our Loving Father, to cast out his Holy Spirit.

Step from our homes to our government. For what is the government? Is it not to enact laws for the guidance and safety of the whole people? Look at our government, the greatest, the broadest in plan, the world has ever seen, where it was intended that all men should be free, where the lowest and poorest citizen was to be happy and prosperous, equal in all things spiritual and material with the richest. I ask you to go into the public places and see if our government is that kind. If it is a part of god government to make laws that will enable the humblest element to control all politics, to enable the rich to get and hold what they want free of cost, while the poor must bear the greatest burden of taxation for the benefit of the rich, then this government is good, and is from God. But who is there that can say so? Not one. This government bears marks which show without question that we have perverted it.

Go from the government to our business world. Is the business man always honest? Does not the merchant sell us shoddy and say it is from God? Look at our shops. Is the time there spent for the good of God, or for idleness and dissipation? Look at our farms, at the exact amount of his time go with you through life, and give you counsel, to give you wisdom, understanding, knowledge, fortitude and piety. Faithful to the Holy Ghost in confirmation will enable you to fight with sin, with Satan, and at the end of the fight, I have kept the faith: heaven there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but to all that endure to the end."

You will be faithful to the Holy Ghost by remembering the lessons you have learned in preparation for confirmation; remember the morning and evening prayer, be sure to come to mass on Sunday. If you are found in sin, even if it is venial sin, never go to it, do not carry, turn from it, and the Holy Ghost will help you to keep from it. The Holy Ghost does not leave one that stays in sin, or harbors sin in his heart.

must acknowledge that we have driven out God's spirit, and taken in the devil's of hell.

How long will you congregate here about the altar of God before you will drive out these spirits and take in God's spirit instead?

There is another thought about the Holy Spirit. While we spend our days in open rebellion to God's sway; while the farmer curses the ground, curses the seed, curses the animals that help him raise his crops, curses the warehouses he stores them in, curses the market he finally takes them to; while the merchant is in open rebellion to his dishonesty and his cheating; while the government is slipping from God's way to that other spirit; while all this rebellion is going on, God's Holy Spirit is going out to us, trying to draw us back to him. Like the father looking expectantly along the way for the prodigal son, it is searching for us. It pervades our every day, coaxing, calling, urging us to come back to him. Why do we not cast aside all feelings of restraint, as long as we have taken up the demons of pride and avarice, and all the demons that follow in the train of these two, and say we will have no more of the Holy Spirit, and its guidance? Because it is in our nature, it is a part of us, and it still holding us back, though we have wandered from under its influence. How long will we continue away?

When God's spirit brings a new spirit into the world, it accompanies that spirit all along the battle of life. First it washes it in the baptismal font; then takes it to the school of repentance, brings it here to the altar for confirmation, chooses for it a vocation in life, and finally at the entrance of eternity, hovering between life and death bids the priest go in with the oil of unction and soothe the last hours. With this care he gives all gifts most precious—counsel, wisdom, understanding, knowledge, peace. He gives you the ability to use them all. What are you going to do with them? Will you trade them off for the miserable gifts of the world? Are you going to teach your children by your example to lie, to swear, to steal, to handle all the impurities of the wicked world? Or will you teach them the good things suggested by the Holy Spirit?

Come, let us join our hands around this crucifix, and say that we will not have it in our homes, our schools, our railroads, our street cars, our amusements, that we want no canonized saints in this enlightened century. Let us tear down this sign of the Holy Spirit; let us cast out our priests of God and say to them, go out and tramp for money to build churches and schools, we want none of them. Shall we drag down this sign cast out all it stands for, and go forward confident in our own strength? Will you talk that way to God? Will you dare to say that to his Holy Spirit?

No! No! Let us join hands and thus united strengthen our hearts and in our hearts that we will honor and obey God. No, Son of God, our Savior and our Redeemer, we love and respect you too much. Come into our hearts and make us better, truer, purer, more like thee, and to this we all say, Amen.

All Kinds of Flower Plants.

Now is the time to get your flowers. Order of N. Sommerbach, 709 Spring avenue.

Two impressive sermons were delivered last Sunday by Rev. Sophie Gibb. The evening sermon was on "The Relation of Morality to Religion." It was an earnest plea for devoting more time to the cultivation of the spiritual nature. The reply of Jesus to the young man seeking to inherit eternal life, was quoted with especial emphasis on the final clause. "Sell that thou hast and give to the poor and thou shalt follow Me." Business and social matters should not be allowed to interfere with the development of the higher nature. Time should be given to the cultivation of love, friendship, sympathy; by faith, worship and prayer, true and sincere, though unuttered, the religious element may be greatly strengthened. Morality bears the same relation to religion that most of the plants bear to the flower. Morality is the foundation on which we stand. Religion furnishes wings by which we may soar.

Owing to her need of rest it is doubtful about Mrs. Gibb being able to preach but a few more sermons in this place.

Coming to Decatur.

Bloomington Bulletin.

One of the most prominent additions to occur in June is that of D. A. Grebough, a prominent young attorney of Watsoka, Ill., and Miss Lillian E. Wiley, of this city. The bride to be is an accomplished musician and a teacher in the public schools, and is a very charming and intelligent young lady. The groom to be is the son of Sheriff Grebough, of Iroquois county, and a graduate of the Wesleyan law school. They will reside in Decatur.

Charitable Union Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Industrial and Charitable union will be held at the Woman's Club house this morning at 10 o'clock. The elevator will be running. The semi-annual report of the work of the union will be given. The attendance of all members and others interested in the work is especially desired.

The Syndicate.

The stockholders in the syndicate block met last night at the office of Leforge & Son and considered plans for the building. Three or four plans were submitted, but two or three other architects signified a desire to submit designs that were not quite ready, so an adjournment was taken till next Thursday night.

Married at Sullivan.

Douglas McDonald, engineer at the knitting factory, and Miss Kittie Waddell were married Sunday at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Lou Sayre, at Sullivan. The wedding was a very quiet one. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald arrived in Decatur yesterday morning.

The Home Open.

The Anna B. Millikin home was opened yesterday with Mrs. Hamilton in charge. The Industrial school will be conducted in the home for the present. The home needs a great many things. This is a worthy charity and should be supported by the people.

Opened.

A big crowd was at the public library yesterday morning when it was reopened at 9 o'clock, after the annual house cleaning. The new books were generally called for, and most of them were taken out at once.

The Carpenters of Decatur.

The carpenters of Decatur will meet in the carpenters' hall, Thursday night, for the purpose of effecting an organization. The carpenters had an organization in this town about five years ago. The former organization went to pieces because some poor workmen got into it.

It is said that the organization to be made next Thursday night will make no demands about wages this year. There will not even be a demand for uniform wages. The idea to be pursued is to get only good men into the union, those who can be recommended to employers. One carpenter said yesterday: "We want to shut out the hatchet and saw men. Those are the fellows who depend upon a cornfield for a living until they get far enough along to distinguish between a meat saw and a wood saw and who then insist to take contracts to put up houses. If we can get all such fellows out the question of wages will take care of itself."

A True Story.

A very peculiar sight was witnessed on Water street yesterday morning. Between Peedocord's and Millikin's banks there were hitched in continuous succession seven white horses. They attracted much attention and comment, and people craned their necks and looked the streets in every direction for the girl with the red hair. Not a one was to be seen anywhere. This was a staggerer, and all rubbed their eyes and looked again. In all the throng that passed to and fro, there was not even a suspicion of auburn hair. This statement need not be taken with any winks or nods. It is a plain recital of a singular fact and can be vouched for by any number of credible witnesses.

Ho Rustled.

"The boys" came perilously near having the grand laugh on Hon. Hugh Crea yesterday. He was around town all day doing more work than anybody for Judge Vall. When away out in Northeast Decatur about 12 minutes before time for the polls to close he happened to think that he had forgotten something. He made a rush for the Sixth precinct, got on the street car, gave the motorman a handsome tip, had the car sail down town at double the schedule time, swore at him all the way, and after running the last lap himself at full speed, got to polling place just half a minute before the polls closed.

Funeral of Mrs. McCormick.

Funeral services were held over the remains of the late Mrs. Osee McCormick at the Christian church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Cate. There was a large concourse of friends present. The services were both impressive and highly appropriate, abounding in highest praise of the life work of the deceased, and speaking words of consolation to the mourning friends. The floral offerings were choice and numerous. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: E. McNabb, T. P. Roddy, W. E. Nelson, F. A. Leforge, T. A. Fritchett and James Turner. The remains were laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery.

An Invention.

L. J. Trussell has a new invention that looks like a good thing. It is a check rein spring that will hold a horse's head up, but give him a chance to get it down several inches if he stumbles or gets very tired from the long strain. The invention consists of a coiled spring four inches long, enclosing two links of the same length. Linked together and forming rings at either end, to which the spring is attached.

The L. & S. Ball Nine.

The Linn & Scruggs employees have organized two or three ball nines already this season. They will play among themselves. The crack nine that is now waiting around with a chip on its shoulder is as follows: Pitchers, Boyd and Layton, catcher, Ott; first base, Martin; second base, Hays; third base, Slegler; short stop, Freeman; centerfield, Rogers; right field, Malone; left field, Layton or Boyd. The nine has already been playing some practice games.

A New Tennis Club.

Another tennis club has been formed. It is called the Rustic, and has chosen brown and yellow as the club colors. The grounds selected are at the corner of North and Pine streets. The club will have a picnic at Riverside park on next Thursday. Misses Alice Robinson, Anna Perry, Nellie Elliott, Ella McRoberts, Florence Bradley, and Clara Weyl are the members.

A Remarkable Boy.

Jesse H. Johnson, who lives two and a half miles from Weldon in DeWitt county, is a remarkable boy, according to reports. He is only 5 years and 5 months old, yet he drove a three horse breaking plow all day for a straight week. He sat on the seat and guided the horses. His father went ahead with another team and the boy followed. He is the grandson of Mrs. E. R. Johnson, who lives in Decatur.

Circuit Court.

Judge Vail opened circuit court yesterday afternoon, but did no business. He said: "I think there is not anything important to do today, so we will adjourn till 1:30 tomorrow morning." As everybody began to smile, he caught his mistake and made it "tomorrow afternoon," and that was the way it went on the record.

Moved to Town.

The Sentinel folks are putting up their tent near the First M. E. church and Mr. Jones will address the people tonight and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock he will deliver an address to the farmers.

Building.

Work was begun by Starbuck and W. H. Thain yesterday on L. B. Casner's new residence. They will put a large force of men at work on the new St. Nicholas as soon as the old building is entirely cleaned out. That will be in a day or two now.

School Election.

The school election will be held today. The polls will open at 9 o'clock at Durfee & Brothers agricultural implement store. So far as known last night there were only two candidates, W. C. Outten and D. S. Shellabarger.

Oakland Park Theatre.

There was an audience of about 400 people at the new Oakland Park theatre last night. The chairs were placed under the blue sky in front of the permanent stage. Electric lights were numerous. The performance was not as complete as it will be hereafter, because some members of the company had not arrived. The performance was greatly enjoyed by the audience which applauded generously. Several of the performers did exceedingly good specialty work. Dan and Minnie Powers are artists in their line. Frank LeRoy, the male soprano, has a wonderful voice, his singing was extremely amusing. The McNulta sisters are very clever, and made many friends. It is a good specialty entertainment worth much more than the price of admission, 10 cents.
